WATER CONSERVATION POLICY

Water is a vital natural resource, and its conservation is essential to ensuring sustainability for future generations. Yash Institute of Pharmacy recognizes the importance of responsible water use and is committed to minimizing water wastage across its campus. This policy provides a framework for water conservation, aiming to reduce consumption, promote sustainable practices, and increase awareness of the need to preserve water.

- To develop rain water harvesting unit.
- To maintain captive water resource -well.
- To use recycled water for watering plants.
- Maintenance and repair of leak pipes.
- For watering plants water drip system is to be used.
- To organize workshops and campaigns to educate students and staff about the importance of water conservation.
